

How to add Films on Demand in your Course

Films on Demand is a service that is available through the library for adding films to your Blackboard courses. This service gives you access to streaming video's grouped into subject-specific categories. The videos are segmented into predefined clips making it easy to find specific pieces of content.

To find a Film for use in your class, go to the Library home page, <http://library.csuohio.edu/index.html>. On the Library home page, Choose MULTIMEDIA.

On the Multimedia page, click the Films on Demand link to access the Films on Demand platform.

If you are on campus, you will not have to authenticate. If you are off-campus, you will need your library pin.

PATRON AUTHENTICATION FOR OFF-CAMPUS ACCESS

Log in with your name, 7-digit CSU ID number, and PIN. (If you have a suffix — Jr., Sr., or III — include it after your last name, e.g., Smith Jr.)

NOTE: You need a Personal Identification Number (PIN) for off-campus access to licensed databases. If you have not yet created your PIN in Scholar, please create a PIN now. It takes just a minute, and you only have to do it once. Then make a record of your PIN (so you don't forget it), log off Scholar, and return to your research. Find out more about PINs.
